“Law/Ethics for Addiction Professionals” • 4 CEUs $25

Facilitator: Bob Tyler, BA, LAADC, CADC II

Compliance Officer, Los Angeles Centers for Alcohol and Drug Abuse (L.A. CADA)

Participants will learn to build an ethical practice, thereby creating a lens by which to view any ethical situation. After learning the ethical tools and principles, participants will utilize such tools to grapple with compelling ethical dilemmas in the form of vignettes. As instructor for the Ethics course in the Alcohol and Drug Studies Program at Loyola Marymount University Extension, and his 27 years working as an addiction professional, Bob brings a wealth of information to this training.

BOB TYLER, BA, LAADC, CADC II, has been working in Inpatient, Residential, and Intensive Outpatient levels of care since 1990. He serves as Compliance Officer at L.A. CADA, and recently founded STAT Sobriety Services in order to pursue his mission of helping people get sober who cannot afford rehab. Bob is Past President of the California Association of Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselors (CAADAC), a founding Board Member of the California Consortium of Addiction Programs and Professionals (CCAPP), on faculty at Loyola Marymount University Extension in the Alcohol and Drug Studies Program, and owner of Bob Tyler Recovery Services (consulting, CD private practice, public speaking). He authored the EVVY Award-winning book, Enough Already! A Guide to Recovery from Alcohol and Drug Addiction, and has produced several educational DVDs which are shown in nearly 1000 treatment centers across the country, including Craving and Relapse.
