Facilitators: Bill Tarkanian

Director of Program Development

Los Angeles Centers for Alcohol and Drug Abuse

Becky Rau, LCSW

Director of Client Care

Los Angeles Centers for Alcohol and Drug Abuse

Case Management / Care Coordination 101 is an overview of reimbursable services as identified in SAPC’s Provider’s Treatment Manual, and includes utilization of L.A. CADA’s Case Management Tools, to ensure optimum Care Coordination through effective Treatment Planning. Participants will exchange best and promising practices, and the Facilitators will emphasize the importance of linking patients to critical healthy living services required to transition patients through multiple levels of care, and into sustained recovery.

BILL TARKANIAN, B.A., J.D., L.A.A.D.C. is a recovering lawyer, and the Director of Program Development at the Los Angeles Centers for Alcohol & Drug Abuse (L.A. CADA). He is an advocate for marginalized populations, including the homeless, the LGBTQ, and others systems impacted. He leads L.A. CADA’s Court Diversion efforts, as part of the agency’s commitment to legal and health equity. Bill also enjoys teaching, as an Adjunct at Azusa Pacific University’s Graduate School of Psychology (MFT track), and with the Los Angeles Community Colleges. He received a B.A. from Claremont McKenna College, and J.D. from Arizona State University’s College of Law.

BECKY RAU, Licensed Clinical Social Worker, is the Director of Client Care for Los Angeles Centers for Alcohol and Drug Abuse. In addition to her duties at L.A. CADA, Ms. Rau provides therapy services in clients’ homes throughout the Los Angeles metropolitan area. She has over 20 years of clinical, program development and policy experience nationally in the health, mental health and substance use healthcare industry. Ms. Rau has a master’s in social work with specialties in health, mental health, and families from The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C and a bachelor of arts in social work from The College of St. Benedict, St. Joseph, Minnesota. She attends California Southern University pursuing her doctorate in Psychology.
